

“MINIMUM WAGE & INCOME INEQUALITY”

- How does a low minimum wage affect income inequality?
 - What is the role of labor unions in wage issues?
 - What happens to the working poor?

 FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC *****

Saturday, April 30, 2016; 2:15 to 4:15 p.m.

Samuels Public Library, 330 East Criser Rd., Front Royal, VA

White Meeting Room A

Panel of national and local speakers includes:

Brendan V. Duke, Associate Director for Economic Policy at the Center for American Progress Action Fund

T. Michael Kerr, Former Assistant to the Secretary-Treasurer at Service Employees
International Union (SEIU)

Lee Smith-Osina, Executive Director, FR/WC United Way

Rita Biggs, Vice President, FR/WC United Way

Question and Answer session will follow presentation

Light refreshments will be served

RSVP to Linda Allen (540) 635-4111

or Barbara Stevens (540) 635-1117

(*RSVP not required but requested to help us gauge attendance)

Sponsored by Community Outreach of WC Democratic Committee